

Nottingham Park Residents Association

SPRING 2020 Talks Programme

To be held at the Tennis Pavilion, Tattershall Drive.
Doors open from 7pm. Talks start at 7.30pm.

Uncanny Archives – the weird and the wonderful

Thursday 6th February 7.30

Archivist Ruth Imeson, of Nottinghamshire Archives, reveals some of the remarkable and unexpected facts and figures held in the county Archives, which celebrated its 70 years existence in 2019. There are over four million unique historic documents in the Archives, some older than the Magna Carta, which can be used for academic research, or to discover your family history or the heritage of your community.

Nottinghamshire's First Woman Member of Parliament

Thursday 5th March 7.30

Florence Paton M.P. was Nottinghamshire's first woman Member of Parliament. Val Wood, an independent researcher and social historian with a special interest in women's history, describes the career of a remarkable pioneering woman. Val has also written about the suffrage campaign in Nottingham and women in political life.

Bargain Hunt: behind the scenes and in front of the TV cameras

Thursday 9th April 7.30

Charles Hanson and Victoria Sheppard, of Hanson Auctioneers, Derby, will entertain us with stories from the auction/TV world of Bargain Hunt and Antiques Roadshow and then set up a mini roadshow during the evening for Park residents and friends who would like to bring along an item for Charles to assess.

All are welcome and please bring your friends. The charge for the individual talks is £2 for NPRA members, £5 for non members.

The booking arrangements will remain the same through David Hill. Please confirm if you are or are not an NPRA member.
